ACCE Meeting April 7, 2017

Guests – Trish Clay and Matt Turner

HB 2542

Voting record – handout

- o Please email or call your representatives to thank them or voice your disapproval of their vote

Only pertains to personnel

- o Purchasing, reporting etc. still fall under HEPC

There is currently no criteria for exemption.

This bill has absolutely no budgetary impact for WV

Repeals WV code 18b-7-11 & 18b-7-12

HB 2815

Gives WVU, MU and WVSOM even greater oversight

Removes appropriations to HEPC and CCTCE for training purposes

Schools can increase tuition up to 10% in one year without approval

Preserves Data Collection and transfer rules currently in place.

Trumps amendment asks about funding per FTE

Budget is the big question.

Land Grant funding is at risk

WVNET is also at risk

- One proposed budget zero's out all funding

Passed budget gives Higher Ed a 4% cut. Waiting on governor to sign or veto

Other topics

- Retirement incentives bill
 - Only thing that really changes is it lowers the age from 70 to 65
 - This reduces the interest that institutions pay from when the employee retires until they turn 65.
- Possible drop fee – student registered for over certain hours charged a fee for dropping below a certain threshold.
- 18,000 graduates in the state last year
- Student loan default rates are down
- Completion rates are up
- HB 2706 – Rules bill
 - Makes changes to Promise
- Compensation and Classification Salary administration guidelines are forthcoming for Mercer.
 - Need to review with Job Classification Committee (JCC) and campus Chief Human Resource Officers (CHRO)
 - Will be meeting with them about every 2 weeks individually

Guest – Bruce Walker

- Mercer
 - Most of it is done
 - Eprism and JD Expert
 - JD Experts – Job Description Repository
 - Generic Parent job description – statewide open for everyone to use
 - Child jobs – specific to institutions
 - New Master specs are almost done for classification
 - Once new salary schedule comes out
 - Institutions will have to bring everyone up to the new minimums at least
 - Statewide looking at $450,000 to get to the minimums
- Oasis is Java dependent
- April 26th WV Tech will find out what's happening for certain.
