

This guide to current student organizations at Glenville State College has been compiled by the Student Government Association. We hope that you find an organization that interests you within these pages.

Remember that there are also other ways to get involved on campus...intramural sports, finding employment as a student worker, ensembles, High Adventure, volunteering, education abroad, and more.

Delta Xi Rho is social sorority with the purpose of shedding a positive light among the sisters, the Glenville State College community, and the town of Glenville itself! Our philanthropy is to spread awareness of domestic violence and child abuse. Our girls love to participate in campus events and host several fundraisers every semester.

Any female-identifying student is able to go through pledging and then the initiation process.
