

Glennville State University Organization Classifications

University student organizations give students the opportunity to participate in co-curricular programs that support the academic curriculum of university while allowing students to collaborate with their peers that share common interests.