

FARMING WITHOUT HORSES

The past quarter of a century has been a period of marvelous development and discovery. So rapid progress has been made in the animal over the roughest and steepest part of the road; and indeed there was no other farm property quite so valuable as the one carrying horse through the most inhospitable terrain.

DORMITORY NEWS

The Spring Term is here, and the STUDENTS!

In Town.

... progress has been made in the... smallest farm can be run well and profitably without the use of horses.

... in the class of 1910, and Miss... in the class of 1911.

